Shiva’s Tesseract
Writing De-myth.

01 – 28 February (28 days)
Haridwar, Banks of Ganges, Foothills of Himalayas

Cooper and Murph’s dialogues, and indeed several other conceptual underpinnings of features Matrix, Terminator, Star Wars etc. resonate several millennia old Vedas and Puranas wherein Lord Shiva says that he is his own grandfather. Of all the deities / prophets of any faith, it is only Lord Shiva whose birth day is not known and celebrated.

Shiva-ratri, the no-moon night this month is observed as the biggest festival. It is also the Saint Valentine Day. Humanity’s first wedding is said to have happened at the place now known as Daksh Temple in Haridwar.

Vedas, dating back to 1700 BC, are the oldest scriptures of Hindu and dharmic faiths. It took three-and-half-thousand years to have translations done in Latin, German, French and English. Swami Dayanand Saraswati, 50 years after these Western ones, first translated into Hindi, the commonest language in India, making it the first in any Indian language. A follower of his established the cluster a century ago of which AZIMVTH Ashram is a part.

“A huge inertness is the world’s defence,
Even in change is treasured changelessness;
Into inertia revolution sinks,
In a new dress the old resumes its role;
The Energy acts, the stable is its seal:
On Shiva’s breast is stayed the enormous dance.”
